

IWO Jedynecki

Introducing
CLASSICAL ACCORDIONIST
based in New York City!

After completing his master, postgraduate & doctoral degrees in Europe, Fulbright scholar Iwo Jedynecki [eevoh yedyhnetzky] brings the unique opportunity for general audiences and university circles in the United States to experience the classical version of the accordion. His original approach to programming and performance and his experience in classical music - ranging from Baroque continuo, arrangements of Bach, Mozart and Chopin to his work with Krzysztof Penderecki - resulted in 2022 in winning Astral Artists Auditions, presenting pioneering concert and educational projects at New York University and a solo appearance at Carnegie Hall.

Multiple sources confirm that it is just the beginning of his eye and ear-opening career in America!
